A strangely repellent, poetic and utterly hypnotic masterpiece of American cinema from director Charles Laughton. With his brooding looks and booming voice Robert Mitchum delivers his finest screen performance as a bogus preacher on a psychopathic journey through the rural backwaters of the Deep South.

THE NIGHT OF THE HUNTER

A fairytale turned into the dark night of the soul. directed by Charles Laughton

RE: Pass Me the Eye N°4

Dear Louis,

I am pleased to say that we will be showcasing your film Lola Christmas Shopping at the next Cinema Club as per the details on the enclosed flyers. We are very much looking forward to this night and hope that you will be able to join us.

You plus one guest will be allowed free entry to the event, but as this as a non-profit venture we ask that other friends pay our minimal entry fee.

We will be making a brief intro to the film based on why it was selected for the night's programme and would very much welcome your taking part by saying a few words about your film after it has been aired — though there is no pressure to do this if you don't wish to face the public gaze.

We look forward to seeing you on the night and should you need any further information please feel free to ring Dan Salmon on 020 7387 0509.

Regards,

David Harrison, Paul Neesham & Dan Salmon
