Dear Dr Streiff,

Between 1 September 2002 and 31 December 2003 Louis Schlumberger developed an intelligent and creative exhibition proposal for a worldwide art event for Chelsea College of Art, London working with a view to potential collaboration with the Swiss Embassy in London and the UN.

The proposal Mr Schlumberger submitted to us was interesting in terms of artistic and political concerns and the reason it was not taken further is not related to the artistic merit of his proposal.

I appreciate Mr Schlumberger's ability to realise unique new works and publicly relevant curatorial projects. He possesses well-developed skills in curating art events and has the capacity to build up and maintain a social network in this context.

I am delighted to recommend Mr Schlumberger for artistic and curatorial skills

Yours faithfully

Daniel Haener
